1. The Fourth Army Vehicle Unit Headquarters, in the strength of a battalion, is set up in the former Episcopalian elementary and high school in St. Vid, near Ljubljana (see I on the attached map).
2. This unit is equipped with eighty trucks, most of which are Chevrolets, Fords and Dodges, plus an additional twenty jeeps received by Yugoslavia from UNRRA. A CEM vehicle salvage dump is located immediately east of this unit headquarters in an area previously used for Ljubljana Fairs.
3. A POL dump is located approximately 500 meters northeast behind the unit headquarters building (see II on map). This dump is 400 x 300 m. in size and is hidden by trees and shrubbery. It contains about 30,000 fifty-gallon drums of gasoline and oil, which are stacked three high. The POL dump is surrounded by a barbed wire fence and guarded by eight guard posts, equipped with two light machine guns and sub-machine guns. The guards are members of the Unit Headquarters.
